

BUS 369 : Corporate Valuation

In this course, students learn financial analysis by writing an in-depth report of a particular corporation of their own choosing. By building a financial model, applying it to a real-time data, and comparing their analysis to real-world analysts, students learn the methods, joys and challenges of financial valuation. Prerequisite: MGMT 200.

Credits 3

Attributes

Research Component

Upper-Level