

REL 330 : Mass Incarceration & Moral Vision

A critical examination of the social functions and theories of contemporary criminal justice in the United States. Special attention to the collateral social consequences of the "prison industrial complex," paramilitary policing and the death penalty. Fosters moral interpretations that contribute to popular movements for positive change.

Credits 4

Prerequisites

Sophomore standing or above

Attributes

Alternate Year

Cross listed

Diversity Domestic

Pre-req

Upper-Level

Cross Listed

AAAS 330

PAGS 331