

ACCT 300 : Accounting and Society I

This course prepares students to understand & evaluate the effect of business on society by analyzing corporate financial & sustainability reports. The course will focus on select areas of these reports as well as the frameworks & standards governing corporate reporting. First of 2-course sequence.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

ACCT 200: Financial Accounting

Attributes

Upper-Level