

ACCT 340 : Accounting Information & Control Systems

This course introduces students to accounting information systems, internal controls, and organizational control systems. Students will investigate these topics from both a technical and an ethical perspective, with a focus on how these systems affect stakeholders.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

ACCT 200: Financial Accounting

(ACCT 200 may also be taken concurrently with ACCT 340)

Attributes

Upper-Level