

Maintenance of Records

The College maintains all conduct records for seven years from their creation except those that result in separation (suspension or expulsion), which may be maintained indefinitely.