

AAAS 204 : African American Literature

An introduction to the study of literature focusing on the works of Americans of Black African ancestry, with possible attention to works of African Caribbean and African Hispanic Americans. Special attention to major developments in form and themes, major writers and the evolution of an African American literary tradition. Introduction to issues of Black literary theory and criticism.

Credits 4

Prerequisites

Sophomore Standing or above

Attributes

Alternate Year

Diversity Domestic

Required for the major

Pre-req

Writing Intensive

Cross Listed

ENG 204