AAAS 204 : African American Literature

An introduction to the study of literature focusing on the works of Americans of Black African ancestry, with possible attention to works of African Caribbean and African Hispanic Americans. Special attention to major developments in form and themes, major writers and the evolution of an African American literary tradition. Introduction to issues of Black literary theory and criticism.

Credits  4
Prerequisites
Sophomore Standing or above
Attributes
Alternate Year
Diversity Domestic
Required for the major
Pre-req
Writing Intensive
Cross Listed
ENG 204