AAAS 232 : African History since 1880

Surveys the African loss of sovereignty and the establishment of European colonial dominance in Africa. Focuses on economic, political and social distortions resulting from foreign domination. Considers the impact of African reactions to these developments. Special attention to the struggle for independence and the re-emergence of independent African states.

Credits 3
Prerequisites
Sophomore Standing or above
Attributes
Alternate Year
Colonialism& Imperialism=Theme
Cross listed
Diversity International
Required for the major
Pre-req
Social Sciences
Writing Intensive
Cross Listed
HIST 232