ACCT 230 : Principles of Managerial Accounting

An introduction to the use of accounting for making decisions in organizations, including the history of managerial accounting, concepts and techniques related to internal decision-making, the relations between financial and managerial accounting, and current ethical issues in the field.

Credits 3
Prerequisites
BUS 200
Corequisites
BUS 200
Attributes
Co-Req
Appropriate for First-year Students