Limited to members of the Computer Science Applied Groups. Working under the direction of a faculty or staff member, groups of CS students provide infrastructure support for the CS Department and the College. Current groups include: CS System Administrators, Hardware Interfacing Project, Helping Others Program, CS for Social Good, and Web Development. No more than three credits total in an academic career.

Attributes
Appropriate for First-year Students
Pre-req