CS 355 : Computer Game Design

This course covers a variety of software engineering and user experience topics through the lens of game design. Students construct several games over the course of the term, first individually and then collaboratively, putting theory into practice.

Credits 3

Prerequisites
CS 256: Data Structures

Attributes
Natural Sciences Division
Pre-req
Upper-Level